DAVIS THEATRE.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle in Pictures and Five New Acts Today.

The management of the Davis have a pleasant surprise for their patrons teday when they will offer the first moving pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle the celebrated exponents of modern dancing, showing these notable dancers doing all the latest society dances including the Tango, the famous Castle Wark of which they are the originators and all the other late dancing crazes. This picture is now being shown in all the big Keith theatres and has been secured for Norwich by Mr. Davis at considerable expense. This is not a part of a weekly but a full reel of modern dancing as done by the greatest dancing teachers in America today.

Besides this special feature there will be the usual five acts of high class vandeville including the big comedy scream. Ann Brown and company.

dy scream. Ann Brown and company, in a rip roaring farce called "It Happened in Lorelyville," this is a big time act and comes direct to the Davis from Keith circuit. Ascott and Corvis from Keith circuit. Ascott and Cornella come next with a lively singing and acrobatic dancing specialty that is in a class by itself. Will Herbert is a singing comedian who has a splendid voice and tells stories that will make you laugh. Woods and Hyland have a comedy skit to offer called the Rural Mail Carrier and no other act like it ever played this city, you will surely like them, the fifth act is Marietta Pool a dainty dashing dancing comedienne who does a nice specialty, altogether the five acts collectively could not be much improved on, each one filling its respective place on the bill nicely. n the bill nicely. THE COLONIAL THEATRE.

The Bombardment and Capture of Vera Cruz," Actual Warfare Scene.

Wenderful indeed is the opportunity offered the patrons of the Colonial theatre today in the mammoth film entitled "The Bombardment and Capture of Vera Cruz by the Americans." This is without doubt the only authentic motion pictures that were taken of this great series of events leading up to and including the cap-ture of Vera Crus, as the peerless and far-famed Pathe had a squad of eight motion piceure camera men on the field of battle all the time and it was he who took the risk of placing his men in the desperate position. Wonderful scenes on board the battleships, and close views of the effect of the deadly shots fired from these dreadnoughts and also the spirited encounters on land with all their details, are seen. This picture is not to be equalled, and all patriotic patrons are requested to come early to the Colenial and avoid or the the rush. Other big attractions for today include, "The Portrait," a superb Vitagraph feature in two parts, featuring Mary Maurice the veteran favorites, Immie Morrison and other favorites. Claire MacDowell, Mary Carey, Christie Miller and others appear in "Her Hand" a big Biograph sensation. While the balance of the bill includes "The Speedway of Despair," dramatic; "Love's Oblivion," and "One on Batty Bill," a roaring comedy. on Batty Bill, a roaring comedy.

De Dies Comedy Circus Headline 5 Act Bill at the Auditorium.

If one compares the various popular price shows being offered within a radius of 100 miles in any direction, a glance will show that the Auditorium of this city leads them all by a great deal. For instance the programme for the last three days of this week. The the last three days of this week. The headline act De Dios Comedy Circus, as an offering alone is a higher priced act than any four acts being offered elsewhere in this vicinity. This act is the best comedy animal act even seen in this city, and carries ponles, mules, dogs and monkeys, and the speed with which they perform their various tricks is a revelation. Another act on this bill shows the quality of the acts booked and that is "Sir Walter Weems." The Earl of Virginia. Mr. Weems was originally booked here last week, but he was such an enormous hit in Haverhill. Mass., that he was kept over an entre week extra. If Weems can't get a laugh here its the fault of the the week extra. If Weems can't get a laugh here its the fault of the audience, not him, as his paast performances have proven his merit. For a classy act the Misses Hardie and Ardele are without a peer, and have an offering that is bright, neat and refined. Zampe and Zampe are reserved. an offering that is bright, neat and refined. Zampa and Zampa a refined musical duo will entertain with their harmonious meledoles on various instruments, and Freddie James will without a doubt be a scream, as Freddie is almost a juggler and his droll humor combined with his juggling are always a hit.

THE OLD TRACK GARG.

Iwas just an ould photograph, feded an' yellow.

Long treasured in somebedy's album,
Oi know.

But from it came mimories, secret an'

That gave me back fri'nd av a glad long ago.

It brought to me moind th' ould thrack gang, begorra.
This bys as well know how a rail should be laid;
Thim lads as could work all tonoight an' tomorrow.
Thin sphit on their hands an' go livel a grade.

Though humble an poor, they were min, let me tell ye.
Wid gintlemen's proide in their sinew an bone;
Their hearts were as babes if a sorrow befell ye,
But pity they'd not for a black-gyard or drone.

Dewn there on th' thrack wid their shovels an' gauges.

Their picks an their crowbers av hefty desoign.

Ye heard not a word about history's pages.

But: "squint at thot rail, lads, an' get in loine."

Shure, they had no derricks or famous invintions. For lifting the rails from the top aw the car;
They used Oirish muscle av Trojan dimensions.
An' tumbled thim off wid th' aid av bar.

They tamped tie an' laughed av their own youthful giory
Whin they wint a-sparkin' on Erin's ould sod;
They paused now an' thin for th' joke av a shtory
An' pitied poor divils thet carried th' hod.

At noon, whin th' boss sounded truce for an hour.

Their dinner palls filled iv'ry inner-most made;
Thin, p'aceful an' caim as a midsummer shower.
They smoked their dudeens in th' cool av th' shade.

But thim was th' ould days, days sacred an' mellow.

Whin thracklayin' shkill was a virtue, begob,
So take off yeh hat to ould ganius, Young fellow;
Thim bys could build railroad—an'
loaf on th' job!
